The University of Minho (UMinho):

- was founded in 1973;
- has over 19500 students of which over 1300 are international students;
- has partnerships with over 400 universities from all around the world;
- promotes over 500 cultural events/year;
- registers 30 patents/year;
- has 1 orchestra;
- was the 1st Portuguese university to publish its sustainability report.

The Surrounding Cities – Braga & Guimarães

Braga

- is one of the ancient cities in Portugal where you can still find many archaeological remains;
- is the 3rd largest metropolitan area in Portugal, with about 181 thousand inhabitants being the capital of Minho's region;
- was the European Capital of Youth in 2012.

Guimarães

- is a city with an outstanding historic past, associated to the foundation and identity of the Portuguese nationality, being proudly recognised as “Portugal’s cradle”;
- has a historical centre classified by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site;
- was one of the European Capitals of Culture in 2012.

So, why should I go to study at UMinho?

Because ...

Portugal is a very safe country

Portugal is located in an excellent spot in the European Union, by the sea, and with very easy and cheap access to other European countries

The Portuguese climate is very enjoyable

Portuguese people are very warm towards non-nationals

UMinho is a very dynamic university where education and research are very much intertwined and everyone can witness the creation of knowledge

The living conditions for students at Braga and Guimarães are very good and affordable

So, our final question to you is: why not?
